

TREPID ELUCIDATION

“UPCOMING REALITY” - OUT FEBRUARY 24TH

OUT FEBRUARY 24TH VIA MOSHER RECORDS - WWW.MOSHERRECORDS.COM

“TREPID ELUCIDATION SIGNS WITH MOSHER RECORDS, DEBUT ALBUM RELEASE DATE ANNOUNCED”

Tech-death metallers Trepid Elucidation will be releasing their crushing debut “Upcoming Reality” through Mosher Records on February 24th. Featuring 37 minutes of pure technical death metal frenzy, the band displays savage instrumental skills that blend perfectly with the deep guttural voice of Diogo Santana (also of slam outfit Analepsy). The influences are clear and range from Death, Decrepit Birth, Obscura, up to Beyond Creation, a tested formula with astonishing results: “Upcoming Reality” is massive in terms of stringwork and the rhythm section keeps up with precision. The artwork is yet another masterpiece by the artist Pedro “Lordigan” Sena, for an album recorded and mixed by Tiago Correia and mastered by Afonso Aguiar. Take a listen and get this album through the label’s website!

THE BAND

Trepid Elucidation is a technical death metal band forged in 2012 in Lisbon by drummer Francisco Marques. Other members are Diogo Santana (vocals, guitar), João Jacinto (guitar), and Renato Laia (bass). After a few years playing in Portugal's most important underground festivals, the band is finally ready to unleash “Upcoming Reality” through Mosher Records. Be prepared.
